MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

The Ancient Coin Club of Los Angeles (ACCLA) was established in 1966 to advance the knowledge and study of ancient coins and numismatics.

ACCLA cordially invites all interested in ancient numismatics to attend our monthly meetings.

Monthly meetings include show and tell, announcements of auctions, shows and events of interest, a drawing for door prizes and a featured educational presentation. Sometimes, coin dealers bring items for view and for sale. The educational presentations usually reflect aspects of ancient coinage, but lectures on archeology, ancient history, art, temples, and ancient culture are often featured.

ACCLA members include people just beginning their ancient coin collection, people who are interested in ancient history and numismatics but who do not collect coins, and some experienced collectors with an extensive knowledge of the field.

While you don't have to be a member to attend a meeting, annual membership is only $25.

Thank you for your support.
